DAY 2: Amazon activities

4 Days

Locations

As the sun rises and the jungle awakens, you have the option to join in with an early morning exploration. Enjoy a buffet breakfast from 05:30 before embarking on a visit to Lake Sandoval, a tranquil ox-bow lake nestled in the Tambopata National Reserve. The journey to the lake is an adventure in itself, a picturesque walk through sun-dappled rainforest trails followed by a peaceful dug-out canoe ride down a stream. Once you reach the lake, you'll be surrounded by picturesque palms and have the opportunity to spot many species of birds, as well as endangered creatures such as the giant river otter, red howler monkeys, red-bellied macaws, anacondas, side-neck turtles, and black caimans. Return to the Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica for lunch before continuing your exploration in the afternoon. We highly recommend taking on the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway, a 344-meter (1,135-foot) system of seven ecologically constructed hanging suspension bridges and eight treetop observation platforms above the forest floor. Admire the breathtaking view of the rainforest and its inhabitants, including toucans, woodpeckers, trogons, monkeys, and three-toed sloths. Once you return to the lodge, you can choose to unwind with a daily nature presentation in the Eco Centre or indulge in a spa treatment (additional cost applies). A-la-carte dinner is served from 19:00.
